			involuntary hydration		were withheld in full. Exemptions (b)(6) and (b)(7)(C) were used to withhold the image/depiction of BOP staff, including correctional officers, supervisory correctional staff, non-custody staff including a teacher, clerk, psychologist, and medical staff. The images/depiction of the BOP staff are not segregable, and disclosure of this information would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. Exemptions (b)(7)(E) and (b)(7)(F) were used to withhold the BOP's techniques and procedures for gathering evidence used for investigative and potential law enforcement purposes, the disclosure of which could enable inmates to circumvent, countermeasure, and/or nullify the effectiveness of the BOP's investigative and intelligence processes. Disclosure of such videos would improperly reveal, among other things, the methods of preparation for, the location of, and the processes for initiating a calculated use of force within a secure BOP institution, as well as the equipment and techniques used to accomplish such a calculated use of force. Further, disclosure of this information could endanger the life or physical safety of BOP staff or other third parties involved, as inmates or their confederates may seek to retaliate against staff involved in calculated uses of force.
